N/A, Bowen Island, British Columbia

Arbutus Ridge is an 83-acre neighborhood overlooking Bowen Island's magnificent King Edward Bay. Its sunny south-facing lots occupy a forested ridge bordering serene parkland that imparts a profound connection with the natural world. The west side of Bowen Island has long been considered a highly desirable place to call home, with the established neighborhoods of Bluewater, Tunstall Bay, Bowen Bay, and King Edward Bay boasting some of the island's best beaches. Building your dream home here needn't mean challenge or compromise. Flat-build sites mean easy construction compared to other options on the island, and all lots are serviced by municipal water and hydro. Transportation links include TransLink bus service from the property to Downtown Vancouver. (id:6289)
